

MBBS Anaesthesia Curriculum (Delhi University)

1. Introduction to Anesthesia
2. History of Anaesthesia
3. Pre-anaesthesia assessment and preparation (PAC) and premedication orders
4. Venepuncture and IV fluids
5. Understanding anaesthesia machine and related equipments
6. Orientation to pain clinic, analgesics, chronic pain and cancer pain management and pain as 5th vital sign by WHO
7. O₂ therapy and devices
8. Spinal and epidural anaesthesia
9. Local anaesthesia drugs and techniques, regional blocks
10. General anaesthesia
 - IV induction agents
 - Inhalational anaesthetic agents
 - Opioids and non-opioids, muscle relaxants
11. Endotracheal intubation
12. Artificial ventilation, self inflating bags, ventilators (basics)
13. Care of unconscious patient
14. CPBR and emergency drugs for resuscitation
15. Assessment and evaluation

MBBS students have 15 days posting during 3rd/4th semester and another posting of 15 days during 9th semester MBBS

At present there is no separate anaesthesia theory paper in 9th semester.

| |
|---|
| Proposal for anaesthesia exam as a separate subject during the 9th semester, subject to approval by MCI and Faculty of Medical Sciences, Delhi University. |
|---|

